MS. AMY ROHLING MCGEE

President, Health Institute of Ohio

Amy Rohling McGee has served as the president of the Health Policy Institute of Ohio (HPIO) since 2010. With her leadership, HPIO has developed a reputation as a trusted source of data and evidence-informed policy analysis. McGee has more than 20 years of experience in management, government relations, policy development, strategic planning, stakeholder engagement, coalition building, and communication.

Her prior public-sector experience includes work in the executive branch of state government, focused on policy issues such as mental health, health insurance, health system improvement, and Medicaid; and service in the state legislature as a Legislative Service Commission intern in the mid-1990s. Her private sector experience includes five years as the executive director of the Ohio Association of Free Clinics.

McGee earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in social work from Ohio State University.
