BUCHTEL COLLEGE.

The corner-stone of this Institution, bearing the inscription, "CENTENARY OF UNIVERSALISM IN AMERICA, 1870," was laid July 4th, 1871. It was opened for the reception of students on Wednesday, September 11th, 1872.

LOCATION.

Its location is desirable and fortunate. The city of Akron is beautifully situated in the midst of hills and valleys, having direct communication by railroad and telegraph with the principal cities and towns of the State and country. It is highly favored with an agreeable and healthful climate.

Its citizens are intelligent and enterprising, hospitable and deeply interested in the educational and moral culture of the young. They have already proved by their active interest and generosity that they will do their utmost to sustain and foster Buchtel College.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS.

The College Building is two hundred and forty feet long, fifty-four feet wide, and five stories high. Its style of architecture combines the Doric, Gothic and Norman. It is a grand structure of symmetrical and harmonious proportions. Its lecture, reading and students' rooms, its dining hall, cabinet, library, laboratory and gymnasium, are light, airy and ample, furnished with the modern and most improved conveniences.

The building is warmed by steam, lighted by gas, and supplied with good water.

The site of the College is high, affording from its observatory one of the most extensive and delightful prospects in Ohio.

The grounds are spacious, being ornamented with walks, trees and hedges.

ITS NAME AND PURPOSE.

The Institution was named Buchtel College in honor of John R. Buchtel, who has consecrated his life and wealth to its support and welfare. It is the purpose of the Trustees and friends to make it a FIRST-CLASS COLLEGE, offering to students of both sexes equal opportunities for a thorough and liberal education.

They welcome the fact as auspicious, that the leading colleges in our land are endeavoring to raise the standard of liberal learning. It is the aim of Buchtel College to be faithful in this noble work of promoting sound scholarship and refined culture—to become, indeed, an Institution of Art and Letters, where the highest type of mental instruction and moral training will be imparted.

With this purpose in view, the curriculum of studies adopted, embraces:

First. A complete college course of four years, equal to that of the best classical Institutions in the country.

Second. A Scientific course of three years.

Third. A Philosophical and Engineering Course of three years.

Fourth. A Preparatory and Normal Course, to fit students for college, and for teaching, affording them useful Academic instruction.

ELECTIVE COURSES.

Students not desiring to pursue any of the regular courses specified, may select such studies as they please from those being pursued by the regular classes, and on leaving college will receive Certificates of rank and advancement made.

LECTURES.

- To FRESHMAN CLASS. On Health and Habits of Study.
To SOPHOMORE CLASS. On Physical Science.
To JUNIOR CLASS. On English and Classical Literature.
To SENIOR CLASS. On Natural and Revealed Religion.
To NORMAL CLASS. On Education and Methods of Teaching.

BIERCE LIBRARY.

By the liberal donation of General L. V. Bierce of Akron, and other friends of the College, an elegant and spacious room has been fitted up for a library. It has already been furnished with many volumes of valuable books. It has space for still more.

READING ROOMS.

There are two Reading Rooms, one for the gentlemen, and the other for the ladies, well supplied with newspapers and magazines.

APPARATUS AND CABINET.

The College owns a good Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, of the latest and most approved kind. A valuable Cabinet of Minerals is also being furnished the College.

NATURAL HISTORY ROOM.

This is an attractive room. The specimens are unique, and many of them rare. These are accurately classified, and tastefully arranged, exhibiting the useful and beautiful.

COMMENCEMENT.

Commencement will be held on the last Wednesday in June. On two days before Commencement, addresses and orations will be delivered before the College by persons invited from abroad.

DEGREES.

The Degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred on students having completed the Classical Course.

The Degree of Bachelor of Science will be conferred on those having completed the Scientific Course.

The Degree of Bachelor of Philosophy will be conferred on those having completed the Philosophical Course.

Every Bachelor of three years' standing in the Classical Course, having sustained a good character and been devoted to intellectual pursuits, and having paid to the Treasurer five dollars, shall be entitled to the degree of Master of Arts; on the same conditions, any Bachelor of three years' standing in the Scientific or Philosophical Course, shall be entitled to the degree of Master of Science or Philosophy.
